Wasserburg am Inn Italian Lifestyle in Upper Bavaria

With its historical medieval townscape, pastel coloured facades, picturesque pergolas and arcade courts, Wasserburg exudes a Mediterranean flair not often found north of the Alps. The many charming small shops and numerous cafés invite the passer-by to linger, enjoy and sample the wares.

The old trading town of Wasserburg is situated uniquely in a loop of the river Inn on the former salt road and can look back on a rich cultural heritage which it has been able to preserve almost fully to this day.

Wasserburg is situated only 55 km from Munich and 25 km from the Chiemsee. This little gem is a favourite holiday destination which offers a broad spread of cultural and leisure activities within easy reach of the town. Wasserburg itself boasts a number of museums and galleries, a variety of guided city and adventure tours as well as the water park Badria with its spa facilities to guarantee a rich and varied stay from which the discerning visitor is sure to retain fond memories.

Enjoy Wasserburg's unique and many faceted ambience and prepare to be fascinated by this truly special town.

Italy is just round the corner.
